

§ 400.735-6

§ 400.735-6 Specific provisions of agency regulations governing special Government employees.

(a) Special Government employees of the agency shall adhere to the standards of conduct applicable to employees as set forth in this part and adopted under § 400.735-1, except 5 CFR 735.203(b).

(b) Special Government employees of the agency may teach, lecture, or write in a manner not inconsistent with 5 CFR 735.203(c).

(c) Pursuant to 5 CFR 735.305(b), the agency authorizes the same exceptions concerning gifts, entertainment, and favors for special Government employees as are authorized for employees by § 400.735-4.

§ 400.735-7 Statements of employment and financial interests.

(a) In addition to the employees required to submit statements of employment and financial interests under 5 CFR 735.403(a), employees in the following named positions shall submit statements of employment and financial interests:

- (1) Secretary;
- (2) Officer in Charge, U.S. Office;
- (3) Officer in Charge, European Office;
- (4) Chief Maintenance Division, European Office;
- (5) Chief Purchasing and Contracting Branch, European Office;
- (6) Officer in Charge, Mediterranean Office;
- (7) Superintendent, Manila American Cemetery.

(b) Each statement of employment and financial interests required by this section shall be submitted to:

American Battle Monuments Commission
2018 Munitions Building, Washington, DC
20360. Attention: Officer in Charge.

Statements shall be submitted in double sealed envelopes, and the inner envelope shall be annotated with the words: "Statement of Employment and Financial Interests—Attention: Officer in Charge."

(c) An employee who believes that his position has been improperly included in this section as one requiring the submission of a statement of employment and financial interests may ob-

§ 401.1 Erection of war memorials outside continental limits of United States.

Federal Government agencies, American citizens, States, municipalities, or associations desiring to erect war memorials outside the continental limits of the United States should proceed as follows:

(a) Submit general idea of the memorial to the American Battle Monuments Commission, with a request for the tentative allocation of the site desired.

(b) When site is provisionally allocated, prepare and submit the design of the memorial, together with the inscription, for approval. The design of the memorial will then be referred, in accordance with law, by the Commission to the National Commission of Fine Arts for its approval.

(c) After a site is allocated and the design and inscription are approved, the American Battle Monuments Commission will, if the sponsors so desire, consult with the foreign government concerning the question of securing approval for the erection of the memorial.

(d) When the approval of the foreign government is obtained, the Commission will cooperate, if the sponsors so desire, in obtaining the ground and erection of the memorial. Such cooperation may include construction of
